- Have original music and this form, signed, in a black notebook by the first rehearsal. Music must be arranged as per conductor's notes.
- Have measures numbered. Bring a pencil, music and the notebook to all rehearsals. (First group on Tuesday and Thursday in both locations-music must be memorized, but you still need to bring the black notebook and your original music.)
- Practice with the metronome.
- Be fully prepared. This means you can play with both hands, up to the conductor's tempo and slower rehearsal tempos, can play with another person(s) without becoming confused.
- Check in 10 minutes before each rehearsal for attendance purposes. Students must attend all rehearsals. Notify your teacher and the person at check-in to request an excused absence. Students will not be able to play in the concert if they have more than one excused absence.
- Do not chew gum or wear jewelry that may scratch the pianos during rehearsals. Turn off cell phones. No texting or talking on cell phones, failure to follow this rules is immediate dismissal from the rehearsal and ensemble
- Give careful attention to the conductor. The conductor has the right to remove a student at any point in the rehearsal process if that student is disturbing the quality of the performance.
- Pictures and video of events may be used by PMTA on their web site and/or in presentations. No individual names or personal information will be given.
